

Training Opportunity for Luxembourgish Trainees

Reference	Title	Duty Station
LU-2023-CIC-IP	Space Economy	HQ Nikis, Paris, France
Overview of the mission: The LuxYGT will report to the Head of the Industrial Policy and Space Economy Division. The Industrial Policy and Space Economy Division includes two main teams: the Industrial Policy and the Space Economy teams. The Space Economy team is in charge of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Measuring the space economy • Assessing the socio-economic impacts of space activities • Developing partnerships to consolidate the required methodologies (with OECD, Eurostat, etc.) It is working in close cooperation with ESA's Programme Directorates.
Overview of the field of activity proposed: The LuxYGT will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support the analysis of the socio-economic impacts of space activities and the socio-economic studies • Support studies on various topics related to space economy • Support the preparation of the ESA's yearly Space Economy Report • Support the communication of the Space Economy team (website, social media) • Support the work of the European Centre of Space Economy and Commerce (ECSECO)
Required education and skills: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You should have just completed or be in the final year of your master's degree in social sciences, economics, policy analysis or a scientific discipline with a minor in economy or politics. • Good interpersonal and communication skills • Ability to work in a multi-cultural environment, both independently and as part of a team • Fluency in English and/or French, the working languages of the Agency 		