

Training Opportunity for Luxembourgish Trainees

Reference	Title	Duty Station
LU-2023-ELI-A	Strategic Evolution Policy	HQ Nikis, Paris, France
Overview of the mission: The publication of ESA Agenda 2025 outlined the challenges for Europe's role in the space economy. The Directorate for European, Legal and International Matters was recently established to help progress the 5 ambitions of ESA Agenda 2025, supporting the implementation of a plan for Europe to maintain and expand its excellence in space, for the benefit of everyone on Earth and in Europe in particular. You are encouraged to visit the ESA website: http://www.esa.int Overview of the field of activity proposed: Under the authority of the Director of European, Legal and International Matters, you, as a LuxYGT, will provide analytical, administrative and project support, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - supporting analysis of various policies relating to space including benchmarking of policies from national, European and international actors; - supporting the development process for the ESA Accelerators, designed to bring Europe's space ambitions to the next level; - supporting the organisation of workshops and events involving key stakeholders in European space.
Required education and skills: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You should have just completed or be in the final year of a university course at master's level in economics, political science or other related fields of study. • Good interpersonal and communication skills • Ability to work in a multi-cultural environment, both independently and as part of a team • Fluency in English and/or French, the working languages of the Agency 		